Changes to the current Site Map

All sections styled in orange refer to the new Site Map presented on the following page.

The main change to the site map is the removal of the left navigation menu. To do so, all options under that region had to be moved:

- Instead of navigating through the solutions by application field, the solutions will be filtered by application field directly from the 2.0 - Solutions & Services section.
 - All solutions, products and services items were removed for the new Site Map, as they were too specific
- Everything under "Modules & Components" will be listed under the 2.0 - Solutions & Services section.
- Everything under "Services" will be listed under the 2.0 - Solutions & Services section.
- The "About" pages under "Learning" will be moved under the "Company" section in regard to presenting what the company does (1.1 - What We Do).
- "Upcoming Training" will be under 2.2 - Services.
- "Upcoming Webinars" will be under 4.3 - Webinars.
